

Barry Davis, B.Comm, CHRP

With 25 years of experience leading and supporting energetic, purposeful, results-oriented learning programs, Barry Davis is a recognized leader in the field. His reputation for partnering with clients to dramatically improve effectiveness makes him the sought-after source for executive coaching, leadership development, customer service, communications, interpersonal skills, facilitation, and training other trainers.

Barry is a sought-after professional Coach, working with individuals and groups to guide them in breaking through barriers to improve cooperation, decision making, and productivity. His easy-going and friendly manner combined with exceptional content knowledge is a fit with classroom participants and consistently earns ratings of 9 and higher on a scale of 10.

Also an exceptional keynote speaker, Barry delivers powerful messages in entertaining style for special events, groups and organizations.

Barry serves his community as Past-President of the Training and Development Association, former Board Member for Council of Human Resource Associations, Co-chair for the Visions '09 and 2009 Leadership Conferences, consultant and facilitator for the Special Olympics Society, presenter for the ASO conference in Regina, soccer coach for his kids' teams and many more volunteer commitments.