G'day I have something really exciting that I want to share with you. I hope you are going great and I know that with this new exciting offering you will be able to achieve so much more.

Hopefully the course has provided you with some great tools and techniques and you are already well on your way to achieving your goals, dreams and desires.

I created this course to be the first step and help me connect with many more people than I could have if I was coaching each individual. That is why teaching on this platform has been such an amazing experience for me allowing me to connect with thousands of students.

What I have found over my own personal growth journey and inspiring others in their journey is that one on one coaching is an extremely powerful way to fast track your success. In 2013 I became a law of attraction life coach with the Inspired Spirit Coaching Academy. I learned how coaching can change people's lives by having someone in your life that is supporting you 100% to achieve everything you want. Through coaching and practising the principles of the law of attraction I have managed to find the love of my life and become financially free at the young age of 44 .

Now you can stumble along on your own without a coach and hopefully this course has helped you get closer to your desires and there are great books and other online courses out there that will help you learn a lot of amazing stuff, but at some stage you will probably need extra help and there is absolutely nothing wrong with asking for help. Actually, I believe when you put up your hand and ask for help that the universe steps in and that help will flood into your life. And I want to help you achieve the same sort of joy and happiness that I have when I have asked for help and I know that with a coach and having someone by your side to personally guide and inspire you, you will definitely be able to transform your life and achieve all your hopes and dreams.

A Coach can help you become more aware of the negative limiting beliefs that you have. They'll help you identify the blind spots in your life so that you can change those limiting beliefs and negative emotions to become more empowered to create the life you want.

In fact, most of the successful people that you know of, have used a coach to help them at some time in their life.

Now I would love to coach everyone personally, but there are only so many hours in a day and I know it simply isn't possible. That's why I've assembled a team of coaches to help you utilise the powerful techniques I have taught you in this course and specially trained in many other coaching tools to help you in any way possible to become the very best version of yourself.

These coaches have already created thousands of success stories with other students who have massively improved their physical health, financial prosperity, loving relationships and happiness.

So why not unlock your potential, manifest more money, more love, more happiness and empower your life with the help of a coach now. Just click the link below this video and you will be taken to a page to fill out a brief form where I offer you a free 45-minute coaching consultation call to see if coaching is right for you.

Now Coaching is NOT for everyone... it's NOT for people who want to change without committing to change—it's ONLY for people who are willing to fully commit to living the life of their dreams.

If you are ready to commit to real change please click on the link below and fill out the form to claim your free no obligation coaching consultation.
