

How to Connect to the Data Source

If you press Refresh while checking your work results, Power BI must reconnect to the data source. Note that Power BI saves the file path to the data source, so it does not point to your computer yet.

You need to change this in Files > Options and Settings > Data source settings and then Browse to the local version of the Excel file.

