

Activity 9

Estimated Time: 10 minutes

The most serious signs of depression include dark thoughts, sudden changes in behaviour, and recklessness. Those who show these symptoms likely have a severe case of depression. What are the other symptoms associated with severe depression, and how might these symptoms affect the individual and those in their lives?