Preserve the moment of your child's birth forever

A unique gift for mother or child

Seven years from now as you and your child sit on your couch looking through old photo albums you'll want to remember more than just those moments caught on film – and so will your child:

- What did I weigh? 8.6 pounds, but you seemed so much heavier when I carried you.
- What sign am I? You're a Scorpio; I always told your father you acted just like a Scorpio - just like it says here.
- What did you and Dad do before you had me? You see this TV show; we used to watch that show as we waited for you to be born.

Whether you want to remember: who was the president, what happened in the world on that day, or what famous people were born that day, you'll recall it all with a Babyography scroll. This museum-quality keepsake contains over a dozen facts about your baby and their birth. And, it comes with a variety of framing options to match most any decor.

Offer a personalized one-of-a-kind baby or birthday gift that doesn't grow old

Babyography®, an illustrated, custom-made birthday certificate, will be cherished for years

Children and adults alike will enjoy looking at Babyography®, a colorful certificate that records both the details of a child's birth and what was going on in the world the year the child was born. Besides birth statistics such as date, time and place of birth, weight, hair and eye color, you'll find:

- who delivered the baby
- names of relatives
- child's birthstone and flower
- child's zodiac sign
- and more!
- what famous people share the birthday
- major events of the year of the child's birth
- the year's popular movies, toys, and television programs

Illustrated in rich watercolors, the certificate measures 11" x 14" (legal size) and is printed on acid-free paper so you can keep it for years without discoloration or deterioration. Available framed or unframed.
