Advice and Feedback

In the 21st century, a couple of new fashion trends emerged, and one recycled old looks from previous decades. The new and hottest trends incorporate high-tech fabrics, which make clothes easier to care for and include wrinkle-free, static-free, and maintenance-free clothing. Another trend utilises sustainable clothing and has designers incorporating eco-friendly materials and production methods when designing. The last trend is bringing back trends from decades past and making them new again.

Answers

In module two, we learned about 20th-century fashion and some of the designers who influenced the era. These artists include Christian Dior who is credited with creating the pencil and A-line skirt, and Oscar De La Renta who was renowned for his evening gowns and suits. We also learned about the infamous Hubert de Givenchy, who is notorious for designing the little black dress, which was worn by Audrey Hepburn in Breakfast at Tiffany's. Finally, the module covered Jean Patou who created the designer tie and Gabrielle Coco Chanel who pioneered the 'flapper dress'.
