Using and Abusing Property

Why do people abuse, steal, or misuse the property of others? There's always some kind of excuse or rationalization that makes it seem like "no big deal" or easy to ignore. Fill in the boxes below with examples of mistreatment of other's property that you have observed, and then list the excuses you've heard and the end result (or what happened).

Mistreatment of property at work:	Rationalization or excuse you've heard:	End result:
Mistreatment of property outside of work:	Rationalization or excuse you've heard:	End result:

What benefits (perceived or real) did the abuser see? Were they worth it?

What other parties may have been inadvertently affected by the abuse or misuse of the property?
